Public Private Partnerships: Global Development and the pursuit of the Common Good in Higher Education

Professor Pamela Gillies CBE
Principal and Vice-Chancellor
1. GCU
2. INTO Partnership
3. Capability Enhancement
4. Global Development
5. Reducing Inequalities
6. Raising Aspirations
7. A University for the Common Good
GCU – Facts and Figures

- Origin 1875
- 22,000 students and staff
- 3 Academic Schools
- 3 Research Institutes
- £440m a year to economy
- 34% students from disadvantaged backgrounds
- 95% employment
- For the Common Good
INTO Delivering success

- 1,976 total number of entrants to joint venture college
- 856 progressed to GCU
- INTO Scotland - Best Student Experience Award 12/13
Public Private Partnerships for Capability Enhancement: SSE Business Academy
Public Private Partnerships for Capability Enhancement: Marks and Spencer
Public Private Partnerships for Capability Enhancement: Transnet Freight Rail

Building Human Capital
Innovative, partnership focused solutions for Transnet Freight Rail
Student and staff volunteers on Phelophepa Train

Fourth-year BSc Optometry Student Eilidh Farquhar
Public Private Partnerships for Global Development: African Leadership University

Fred Swaniker
Public Private Partnerships for Global Development

Grameen Caledonian College of Nursing
Public Private Partnerships for Global Development

First GCU degrees in Glasgow, for partner college students
Public Private Partnerships Reducing Inequalities: First Grameen borrowers
Public Private Partnerships: Raising Aspirations

- Fellows Programme for 16-18 year olds
- 20 Fellows used GCU New York
- Teaching, workshops and personal creative projects developed
University for the Common Good